Traffic Safety Awareness Drive

Rotary Chandigarh Midtown in association with Chandigarh Traffic Police organised the First Phase of Traffic Safety Awareness Drive opposite the Government College for Women in Sector 11, Chandigarh. In this drive 20 helmets were distributed to Women Two wheeler riders and pillion. The riders were made aware about the traffic rules and safety. The benefits of wearing helmet were well explained to them. The women riders already following the helmet rule were given gifts as an appreciation gesture.

Present on this occasion were President Ashok Puri with First Lady R’ann Sudha Puri, PE Salil Dev Bali, PP BL Ramsisaria, PP Indrajit Sengupta, PP Vinod Jawa, PP Deepak Sood, PP Amarjit Singh, IPP Dr Ritu Kalra, Jt. Secretary Nitin Kapur, DYS Kulbir Bhatia, Rtn Shashi Jain, Rtn Suman Gupta with Mr NK Gupta and Rtn Kulvinder Singh.

DSP Traffic (East) Mr Jaswinder Singh, Traffic in charge Ms Sita and team of 15 constables were operating under the guidance and orders of SSP Traffic Mr Shashank Anand, who appreciated the role of Rotary in a telephone conversation with PP Deepak Sood. This drive was successful not only in imparting traffic safety laws and rules, but also created a good public image of Rotary amongst general public.
