In our weekly meeting on November 08, 2019 President Rtn. Salil Dev Singh Bali welcomed our own Rotarians PP Dr. Balram Gupta and Rtn. Arjan Singh, the two eminent speakers to enlighten us about the 550th Birth Anniversary of Guru Nanak Dev ji. He also welcomed President of Rotary Chandigarh Shivalik Rtn. Aneesh Bhanot and other guests; Former DGP Punjab Mr. G.S. Aujla, Neuroartist Mr. Vinod Mehta and DGM of Schindler India Ltd Mr. Harmee Singh.

Rtn. Arjan Singh talked about Guru Nanak’s poetic hymns in the Guru Granth Sahib. He was a unique person, a combination of a mystic guide and a saint. He was an active member of the society and a great observer of the world.

Guru Nanak, along with the Sufis like Sant Kabir decided to reform the social culture of India. He gave his message in simple language which was easily understood. “Ek Onkar”, says Bani of Guru Nanak Dev ji.

All human beings are same. Over 500 years ago Guru Nanak was talking about issues which are alive even now. He had taken up the issue about women empowerment, as they give birth to kings and emperors. Arjan recited Guru Nanak’s message, “Na Koi Hindu, Na Koi Musalman, Awall Allah Noor Upaya, Kudrat De Sab Bande.”
There have been several prophets and saints who propagated religion. Guru Nanak was one of them. He was not only founder of the Sikh Religion, he was great poet, philosopher, humanist and powerful social reformer. Guru Nanak spoke of one God, universal brotherhood, love, humility, simplicity, equality and tolerance. He did not restrict himself to one religion; he chose to embrace the good teachings of all faiths, that have universal applicability and validity for all times to come. Hence it was said, “Guru Nanak was Shah Fakir / Hindu ka Guru, Mussalman ka pir.”

He embraced both the Hindus and Muslims. Guru Nanak’s honorable philosophy of life was conveyed through simple dictum - “Kirat karo, vand chhako, naam japo”. Earn an honest living, sharing with others, pray in God’s name. When a person follows these three principles, he is well on his way to realizing the potential and purpose of his life.

Guru Nanak travelled far and wide teaching people the message of one God who dwells in every one of his creations and constitutes the eternal Truth. He set up a unique spiritual and social platform based on equality, fraternal love, goodness and virtue.

Guru Nanak’s ideology is “Pawan Guru Pani Pita Mata Dharat Mahat”. Air, Water and Land is precious; so let’s keep it pollution-free. The air is the guru, water the father and earth the mother. This should be truly followed for the betterment of our future generations.

Guru Nanak preached, “Man Jeete Jag Jeet.” If we conquer our mind, we conquer the world. Guru Sahib says, “Karmi karmi hoye vichar.” Everyone is responsible for his/her actions. Arjan concluded with another message of Guru Nanak ji, “Sarbat da bhala” - Blessings and prosperity for everyone.
