In our weekly meeting on January 24, 2020 our Chief Guest was Rtn. Anil Puri, Assistant Governor, Area 16, 2018-21 and member of Twin Cities Rotary Club, Rotary District 5020, USA. As he is the brother of IPP Rtn. Ashok Puri, Rtn. Anil Puri was welcomed by President Rtn. Salil Dev Singh Bali as ‘our own AG’ and a distinguish Rotarian.

Rtn. Anil Puri is a Mechanical Engineering graduate from NIT Kurukshetra and he did ME from Washington State University. He worked in the Mining industry for over 30 years in the Engineering and Management roles. Managed several projects for over 8 years at the Thermal Power Plant. He has managed numerous innovative solutions to the problems encountered by the workers and the processes and enjoyed his ability to detect inefficiencies and find solutions. He was a volunteer in the organizations like Credit Unions and Literacy Council.

Rtn. Anil Puri served as President of his Club in 2016-17. He was GSE team leader of District 5020 in 1992-93, for the visit to District 3160 in India He is also member of Paul Harris Society and a Major Donor.

Married to Teresa, they have 3 daughters who are married. Two are lawyers and one is a teacher. They have two grand children and love playing with them. AG Anil has keen interest in American and Indian history.

Vocational Award

Volunteer Vocational Awardees with Rotarians

Director Vocational Service PP Rtn. R.K. Luther introduced the Vocational Awardees: Sudam - Safai Karamchari of Sector 47, Jaswinder Singh – peon in CCET Sector 26, Meena Vij – Counselor of HIV patients, Sunita Rana – Counselor of HIV Department and Subhash Chander – Gardener in Civil Hospital Panchkula. They were recommended by PP Rtn. Dr. Vanita Gupta, PP Rtn. Amarjit Singh and PP Rtn. Dr. Rita Kalra. PP Rtn. Dr. Vanita Gupta, PP Rtn. Amarjit Singh and PP Rtn. Dr. Rita Kalra. They were highly impressed by the activities of our Club. He said, “I keep getting your bulletin every week” and “really admire all the projects you do”. He added that even the District Governors of his District 5020 get the bulletin and they too like it. He further stated with a loud applause, “nobody else has a bulletin as good as your Club”, and for this he complimented the Editor, PP Dr. V.J.S. Vohra.

AG Anil Puri also explained the purpose of his visit to India this time was to participate along with a group of Rotarians from USA, in the National Immunization day in Jhansi. He shared his personal experience in Jhansi and observed that the NID is carried out very methodically by adopting a very efficient process, due to which India has an amazing achievement of being a polio free nation.

AG Puri talked about common people of India based on his conversation with porters and drivers. He said these common citizens of India are having electricity in their homes, cell phones, flush system toilet, refrigerator, cooking gas and colour television for their family. This shows India has made tremendous progress and we should be proud of this. He concluded by saying he would like to follow the footsteps of his elder brother IPP Ashok Puri.

CP Amarjit Singh thanked AG Anil Puri for attending our meeting and also for his Club being a partner in our projects, looking forward to more joint projects in future. He was also happy to inform about meeting and fellowship he enjoyed with AG Anil at the RI Convention in Hamburg. Amarjit also thanked Director Vocational Service PP R.K. Luther for conducting the vocational award function.
