Talk by SSP on 'Security in Chandigarh' postponed to February 3, 2012

In the weekly meeting on January 06, 2012 President R.K. Luther wished a very happy new year to all Rotarians and their families. Chief Guest Mr. Naunihal Singh, IPS, Senior Superintendent of Police, Chandigarh was unable to make it, as at the last moment he was called for an urgent meeting with the Home Secretary. The SSP requested President Luther to postpone his talk on 'Security in Chandigarh', and it has now been fixed for Friday, February 3, 2011.

The President had no other choice, and Programmes Committee Chair PP Rtn. Pallav Mukherjee was requested to take charge! Pallav's task was to suggest how to make the meetings interesting so that every body gets involved. Pallav went 40 years back, when as a student in Architect College, Women's Liberation movement was picking up. Pallav suggested that we debate on this, as it still continues to be a matter of deep concern!

Women's Liberation

The topic generated enough interest for the Rotarians to come up to the dais and give their views. So there were large number of speakers, all of them being disciplined, did not talk over time! Those who did not walk upto the dais were also equally vocal and were fully involved in the proceedings with their valuable comments and suggestions.

Pallav was freely distributing chocolates to all the participants who were gladly accepting these, without being worried about sugar, cholesterol or obesity! However, some were carrying these home to impress their kids & grand kids!

Some speakers felt that even today women are not liberated and are being suppressed by men who are dominating the world. There was also an opinion that the urban women have been liberated as now a days we see them in all professional fields competing shoulder to shoulder with men. We have a women President in our country. The ruling party is being dominated by a women. Some states have women chief ministers and some very key positions in India and other countries are held by women. However, it is the rural women who need to be liberated.

There was a suggestion which surprised and humored everyone, that men, who struggle all their life under immense stress to bring up the family, do not get due recognition, and they need to be liberated too!

There was a lively discussion on how to make the weekly meetings interesting. PP Rtn. Anil Mehan suggested that we should have dinner meetings. To this, the point raised was the cost factor, to which the response was that at least one meeting in a month could be held over dinner. Another suggestion came up was to actively involve the spouses, new and young Rotarians in our club meetings.

This being the first meeting in the new year, was followed by cocktails, very kindly sponsored by PP Rtn. Gurdip S. Deep and Rtn. Dr. Rita Kalra.

"Boss Kidnapped"

By: Rtn. J.S. Chopra

Employees of a Company are all worried. Some are roaming around. Some are in loud discussions during office time. Some Trainees, who had just joined, notice this and enquire about what happened. "Terrorists have kidnapped our Boss. They're asking for $ 2 million ransom, otherwise they're going to douse him with petrol and set him on fire. We're going from desk to desk, taking up a collection."

One Trainee asks, "How much is everyone giving, on average? He gets a prompt reply, "About 1 litre each!"
