Business Meeting: Presentation of Budget and Proposed Plans

PDG Shaju Peter gave valuable suggestions

Treasurer R.T.P.S. Tulsi presents the budget, while President Gurdip Deep & Jt. Secy Dr. Nitin Mathur give patient hearing

After a glittering installation function last Saturday, business was as usual on Friday, July 31, 2009 with a Business Meeting to present the Budget 2009-10 and the proposed plans for the year.

PDG Shaju Peter said since we have a highly visible project in Aasra at GMCH Sector 32 and we just completed the basic construction, it would be worthwhile for us to keep some provision for upgrading the facilities from time to time and earmark at least Rs 50,000/- for the current Rotary year. Shaju further pointed out that since PP Capt. M.S. Kahlon is the District Chair for RYLA and the issue of a provision of Rs 30,000/- did come up at the Club Assembly, the same should find a place in the budget.

Treasurer Rtn. R.T.P.S. Tulsi made a formal presentation of the budget which was unanimously passed by the house, including the additions as suggested by PDG Shaju. Aasra GMCH-32 Committee was duly constituted with IPP Saroj Jhawar as the Chairperson. PP D.P.

Some persons do wonder, "Money comes, money goes - why have a budget at all?" Budget is such a handy little tool that it works for the country, business organization and even for a family! Budget is like a roadmap for Rotary clubs to invest in the projects wisely and be organized enough to make all their plans come true and still have control over the funds.
