No one could have introduced DG Madhukar better than his engineering college mate, PP Ajit Gulati, having association since 1968 as college students, where he was one year junior to Madhukar, and Ajit even shared with us the ragging episode! After formal introduction (see previous bulletin No. 31), Ajit concluded, "I present to the house a very handsome, dedicated and a true Rotarian DG Madhukar Malhotra."

In his address DG Madhukar Malhotra said, "It is a pleasure to be in Rotary Club of Chandigarh Midtown. It is just like a home club." He added, "I must compliment President Prem Anand and his team for the excellent work they are doing." He appreciated the Home Care Nursing project pioneered by Dr. B.D. Gupta. This type of project needs to be taken up by other clubs in the District, as this project has two aspects. This unique project creates good employment opportunities, and then there are trained persons to serve the elderly and sick persons.

PP Ajit Gulati introduces DG Madhukar

DG talked about the continuity in Rotary and earlier in the day had interacted with the club leaders and also with the Presidents Elect for 2011-12 and 2012-13, Rtn. R.K. Luther and Rtn. Ritu Singal. He expressed his confidence that the club would be in good hands for the next two years!

DG Madhukar observed, "Your club has good programmes, good community service activities, participating in the District projects - besides your own club projects. You have RCCs, Rotaract and you are there in almost all Rotary programmes."

He advised we should not look at membership growth at the cost of quality. He said one member growth is good enough, "We should not dilute our Rotary organization." However, he pointed out, "In a city like Chandigarh, having a population of 12 lac, five clubs with about 450 Rotarians is not sufficient. We should have about 10 Rotary clubs with much larger number of Rotarians." He added, "In addition to introducing our friends, we should go out looking for new people who are capable of becoming good Rotarians. We should look into new businesses and professions that are coming up."

DG Madhukar also talked about polio. He explained how this movement, a great initiative by Rotary, has come a long way since last 25 years, when in 1985 UNICEF and WHO came on board as partners with Rotary for worldwide polio eradication programme. To make this programme reach out to the remotest areas where there were no Rotary clubs, it was not possible without the Government involvement. In 1995 after passing of resolution by World Health Assembly all the Governments came on board. Ultimately it was realized that the Government who has all the resources and manpower could reach across the country. Madhukar said, "For Rotary it is advocacy, awareness and funding and that is where our role is." In 1985 there were two lac polio cases every year in India. It was just 42 last year! It is hoped that this year by June the figure will be zero, and as Madhukar puts it, "That should be a gift to Rtn. Kalyan Banerji when he takes over as RI President, and the credit for that is all yours!"

Rtn. Rajesh Mahajan being inducted by DG Madhukar. He & his spouse were introduced by Rtn. Parveen Khosla

He further advised that the best way to create awareness is through school children, who could be well motivated not only to spread the message but also ensure that every child upto age of 5 gets the polio drops! DG appealed that we continue with our commitment of $ 30 each for this noble cause. He remarked, "This is the responsibility of the Indian Rotarians."

The inspiring talk by DG Madhukar made Rtn. D.R. Agarwal write a cheque for $ 380/- to make his grand daughter a PHF. DG will match this amount with $ 380 and remaining amount will be given by our club.

Rtn. Arjan Singh introduced the students who received scholarship; Nisha Bansal, Naina Dhiman, Shilakha, Aartika Bansal, Anuradha and Rajni Aggarwal. Jeet Singh received micro loan. This project is implemented through the funds received from all eleven RI Districts of Italy.

President Nominee Rtn. Ritu Singal formally expressed gratitude to all those who made this function a grand success with their presence and participation. She thanked DG Madhukar Malhotra for his valuable advice and motivation.
