

Valentine's Day to Express Love for Humanity

Valentine's Day is a day to express love, the most beautiful feeling in the world! Lucky are those who are loved and cared for. Love is the superior power of humanity. Love is kind. Love is a great healing power. And as Rotarians, who could understand this better than us. We are in Rotary because of our feelings and amazing love for humanity.

In Rotary, the family comes first. Love is unending for our parents and children. But for every Rotarian there is a supportive spouse, who deserves to be showered with praises and profound affection!

In the absence of President Rtn. Prem Anand, the meeting on February 18, 2011 was presided by Vice President Rtn. Ritu Singal. She conducted the meeting very elegantly. It was a clear indication of what she has in store during her tenure as President in 2012-13.

The club meeting after an eventful visit of District Governor, is normally a cool affair with an average attendance. But this was not the case in this meeting. Attendance was impressive as large number of spouses were present. Ritu had made efforts to send SMSs on Friday morning to all Rotarians, "Express love through fun filled games and music at the meeting in Hotel President. Looking forward to your gracious presence with your spouse." The meeting was full of fun, frolic and laughter all around!

Ritu was ably assisted by Secretary Rtn. Deepak Sood and her friend, Mrs. Jyoti Kumar, Project Coordinator, Raglan Infrastructure Ltd., Zirakpur. PDG Rtn. Shaju Peter and PP Rtn. Saroj Jhawar were the Judges.

What appeared as 'Jai Mala', was in fact a game in which the couples had to say 'Asi tuhade tusi sade' clear and loud, while garlanding each other for one minute. The couples were given one garland only to do this act and the rule was that it should not break while exchanging it with each other.

In the other game Jyoti and Ritu were singing the antara of hit songs. Sheesh Mahal had become 'Sangeet Mahal'. The house was divided into two teams, A & B. Rotarians and Anns instantly responded with the relevant mukhda. Secretary Deepak Sood was on his toes distributing the prizes to those who were getting it right. It was CoD (Chocolates on Delivery!).

Announcing the results for 'Asi tuhade tusi sade', PDG Shaju Peter remarked, "Those couples who were not audible had to be disqualified. Those couples who expressed one sided love were also disqualified."

Ann Meena & Rtn. Rajesh Mahajan, who were inducted last Friday by District Governor Madhukar Malhotra, exchanged the garland maximum number of times with loud & clear voice, were declared the winners by the judges. A good beginning for new Rotarian!

For the other game of identifying the contenders but only one could be the winner. Shaju said, "There was somebody who was outstanding and that was Shashi Gupta." Most of the prizes were bagged by her, and the
