Vishnu Kumar Gupta Memorial Debate

The Indian Media have abandoned the Ethics of Objectivity for Sensationalization

In our club meeting on December 07, 2012 Vice President Amarjit Singh, officiating as President, welcomed Mr. Ashwani Kumar Gupta and Mrs. Monica, elder son and daughter-in-law of Late Mr. Vishnu Kumar Gupta, whose younger son, Rtn. Vijay Kumar Gupta was also present with his wife R'ann Suman.

Assistant Governor Arvind Mehan also graced the occasion.

PE Deepak Sood announced the names of Judges for Vishnu Kumar Gupta Memorial Debate, PDG Shaju Peter and Dr. Ms. Nirupa Marwaha, Assistant Professor, Govt. Home Science College, Sector 10, Chandigarh.

VP Amarjit Singh handed over the proceedings of the meeting to Director Vocational Service PP Prem Anand, who conducted the debate meticulously, within the time schedule.

The participants, Rotaractors and non-Rotaractors from local colleges, were given five minutes each to speak for and against the topic, 'The Indian Media have abandoned the Ethics of Objectivity for Sensationalization'. Those who supported the media expressed their views that the media is doing its duty in reporting the news, and channels like NDTV

All the participants gave impressive views with fluent command over English. But Rtr. Sidharth of Rotaract Club Chandigarh Midtown, who spoke brilliantly in Hindi,

The Judges : Dr. Ms. Nirupa Marwaha and PDG Shaju Peter

received loud applaud from all present, and he won the well deserved first prize. The team prize went to Piyush Sharma and Bhawsheel Singh of DAV College. Others who took part in the debate were Simrat Kaur, Sangha Preeya, Aarushi bring out the facts before the public in most honest manner. But the speakers who were not satisfied with the performance of the media blamed them for sensationalizing the news and making mockery of it, with the prime motive of getting high TRPs for earning revenue as the persons who run these channels have their business and political interests!

Kalra, and Saachi.

Director New Generation Rtn. Dr. Rita Kalra and Rtn. Dr. Mrs. Anureet K. Bhatti organized the participants, and also finalized the order of debate and distribution of certificates to the participants.

President Ritu Singal's Facet of Peace – Step 20: Always be on guard, stopping himself from creating bad karma

Nature Runs a Fine Dinning Restaurant called – Karma. It is a Divine Place where there is no need to place any order. We are served what we deserve – Automatically. So one should always be on guard, stopping himself from creating bad karma otherwise we will have to face-back the effects.
