President Ritu Singal's Facet of Peace - Step 5 : Peace begins with a Smile

Peace begins with a Smile. Just imagine all soldiers going to war with smiles on their faces rather than guns in their hands. They would really have to think hard about what they are fighting for! A couple fighting, but meeting each other with a smile when back from office. Peace is not an abstract phenomena, but it can be achieved by making realistic efforts to change something within and courage to smile.
